

Diane Pilkinton-Pihko
Senior Lecturer of English
Helsinki University of Technology,
Language and Communication Centre

Title: Mapping the Scores from a Custom-designed ESP Test onto the CEF Scale

The CEF model of language ability has been recently adopted as the basis for the curriculum at TKK Language Centre. At the same time, it was decided that a placement test for English should be implemented. My presentation briefly introduces the design of the placement test for students of science and technology and then moves on to discuss issues related to the implementation of the CEF scale.